Description

This is an unframed oil on canvas painting, done in three panels. It illustrates unrelated objects, from the left to the right: a turkey's head shown sideways, tires, a red rose, someone's knees as they ride a bicycle, the upper portion of a woman's face, the side of a car, the top of a bottle, and a men's shoes. Each collaged image is manipulated in size and color, throwing the viewer off balance. The primary colors are gray and red.
