

Basic Detail Report

Covered Ding Food Vessel with Stylized Animal Decor

Date

1st - 3rd century A.D.

Primary Maker

Unknown

Medium

Lead glazed ware | Ceramic

Description

Bowl part of a covered tripod bowl. Tripod bowl has two vertical loop handles, incised line encircling center of body, and three crouching figures forming legs of the tripod. Lid is of saucer shape with a rim which serves as foot when interted. Lid has designs of birds and animals molded in relief with a border diaper mostly obliterated. Lid interior unglazed, except for several small spots, vessel interior mostly unglazed but with large splash center bottom. Exterior bottom and inside of legs unglazed in triangular pattern.

Dimensions

Overall: 7 1/4 in. (18.4 cm)