

Overall: 13 1/4 in. (33.7 cm)

Tomb Sculpture in the Form of a Standing Lady

Date

8th century A.D.

Primary Maker

Unknown

Medium

ceramic, gray earthenware with traces of cold painted pigments

Description

Tomb pottery figure of a lady. Figure stands with hands at waist, right fist resting on left wrist. Traces of red on bodice, wide collar has some trace of white paint and black design in a comma shape. Some red on lips, white on face. Wears high chignon or hat in shape of a "Y": at top of head. Wide sash falls from collar in back with traces of green. Details of robe incised; shoes have turned up toes. Small hollow area underneath.

Dimensions