

Basic Detail Report

Necklace

Date

No Date

Primary Maker

Unknown

Medium

Faience | Clay

Description

Necklace of blue-green tubular beads alternating with little flat beads and nine amulets pendants. Starting with the large flat white bead where the registration number is written, from the 5 to the 7 all around the necklace are:; 1. One left eye of Horus, in white. It's much worn; the vertical stroke of feathers or kohl is missing.; 2. One complete left eye of Horus, in white.; 3. A standing white figurine with broken legs, arms along the body, long hair, breasts and big belly, big round snout and a long striated tail in the back. It looks like the hippopotamus goddess Taweret. Bad work.; 4. A white roughly square flat amulet with patterns carved on it. Bad work too.; 5. A dark crouching female figure.; 6. A white finely carved left eye of Horus; the vertical stroke of feathers or kohl is missing.; 7. A white papyrus blossom with a broken stem.; 8. A blue-green papyrus blossom with a broken stem.; 9. One right eye of Horus in white, with a metal pupil. ;