

King's Head

Date

11th century-13th century

Primary Maker

Unknown

Medium

Sandstone | Wood

Description

Head of man has typical Khmer features, broad nose, square base, large lips. Wears head dress of flared base with conical projection at top. It ties at back of head with either cloth or stylized braided hair extending beneath it. Incised striations also on hat pieces. Ears protrude widely to the side, several skin folds in front neck. Mounted on wooden pedestal.

Dimensions

Base: 8 3/4 in. (22.2 cm) 26 1/2 in. (67.3 cm)