

Basic Detail Report

---

War

Date

16th century

Primary Maker

Alessandro Vittoria

Medium

Bronze

Description

This is a small bronze statue on a triangular wooden base. The statue of War is personified as a woman wearing a plumed helmet, long drapery fastened at her left shoulder down to her feet. She wears a ram's fleece and ram's head. On her left arm is a shield. Her raised right hand once held a spear. At her feet is a small creature that has a head that mirrors her own. The body of a mammal and wings. Her weight is supported by her right leg, with her left foot nearly stepping off the pedestal as if moving forward.

Dimensions

Overall: 22 1/2 in. (57.2 cm)