

Overall: 8 1/4 in. (21 cm)

Figurine of a Lady Musician

Date

ca. 1690-1700

Primary Maker

Unknown

Medium

Porcelain | Enamel

Description

Chinese exportware figurine depicting a musician. Lady is seated on perforated garden stool of yellow and blue with an iron red coverlet. She wears a flowered robe of pale yellow with large pink flowers, violet undergarment with pink and white skirt. Both hands hold a pipe instrument to her mouth, head tilted slightly to her left. Hair done in high topknot; head and arms white; piece hollow but bottom filled in. Small grey painted panel on front of skirt.

Dimensions