Description

The David L. Hack Civil War Photography Collection. A photograph of several men in the woods trying to turn over a derailed train, back up an inclined hill. There appears to be a rope and pulley system being used. Many of the men are facing the camera. There is a man standing with legs apart in the center, with dark clothes and dark hat. This is Plate 10 from Gardner's Photographic Sketchbook of the War (Hack Collection No. 205).
