

Basic Detail Report

Beaker and Saucer

Date

ca. 1760

Primary Maker

Worcester Porcelain Company

Medium

Porcelain

Description

This is a 'Fisherman and Willow Pavilion' Pattern Beaker (A) and Saucer (B). The beaker is finely "strap fluted" and reserved with three rococo panels issuing floral sprigs and painted with either a Chinaman fishing near a willow beside a pavilion, a willow growing by a rock or flowering shrubbery growing by a rock, the saucer less finely moded but similarly painted around a central blossom medallion, and each piece with a trellis diaper border around the rim.

Dimensions

3 1/2 in. (8.9 cm) 5 5/16 in. (13.5 cm)