

Basic Detail Report

Dectagonal Bowl, Famille-Verte Pattern

Date

ca. 1753-54

Primary Maker

Worcester Porcelain Company

Medium

Porcelain

Description

This is a Early Worcester Decagonal Small Bowl with flaring shape and painted in an expanded famille-verte palette of green, blue, iron-red, yellow, grisaille and touches of rose on the front with a bird perched on the trailing stem of a flowering plant, and on the reverse with a stylized peony branch between two insects, the interior with another flowering branch beneath a green trellis diaper border interrupted with five demi-flowerhead panels on the flaring rim.

Dimensions

3 15/16 in. (10 cm)