

Basic Detail Report

---

Worcester Spherical Teapot and Cover

Date

ca. 1768-70

Primary Maker

Worcester Porcelain Company

Medium

Porcelain

Description

This is a Worcester spherical teapot (A) and cover (B) colorfully painted with a Chinese boy showing a bird to a lady seated and painting a table on one side and a boy showing a fishing pole to a lady holding a vase of flowers on the opposite side. Each scene is within a brown-edged panel reserved on a ground of gilt scrollwork further reserved with panels of iron-red and black flowers and small roundels of rose flowers. The cover has panels of vessels on a similar ground around the teardrop knob. The pot and the cover rim each have a shallow chip.

Dimensions

5 7/8 in. (14.9 cm)