

Basic Detail Report

---

Dish

Date

ca. 1760

Primary Maker

Worcester Porcelain Company

Medium

Porcelain

Description

This is a Worcester 'Magician' Pattern Cabbage Leaf Dish. Each piece 'penciled' in black with a Chinaman holding a bird in his right hand, carrying a parasol in his left and strolling between a vase of peonies on a low table and a pine tree in a fenced garden, the rim with an interior border of diapered panels, S-scrolls and trefoil foliate device, and the center of the teabowl with a vignette of a hut near a willow tree and a large rock.

Dimensions

10 1/8 in. (25.7 cm)