

Basic Detail Report

Worcester Large Spherical Teapot and Cover

Date

ca. 1775-80

Primary Maker

Worcester Porcelain Company

Medium

Porcelain

Description

This is a Worcester large spherical teapot (A) and cover (B) boldly painted in iron-red, yellow, rose, blue, green, brown, and black on either side with a Chinese lady standing at the door of a house watching a man holding a posy and a boy plucking branches within an iron-red edged panel reserved on a gilt scrollwork ground further reserved with iron-red and black floral panels and rose floral roundels. The cover has garden fence vignettes reserved on a similar gilt scrollwork ground interrupted by the iron-red and green floral sprig knob. The spout has been repaired and chipped.

Dimensions

6 7/8 in. (17.5 cm)