

Basic Detail Report

---

Worcester Fluted Saucer Dish

Date

ca. 1772-78

Primary Maker

Worcester Porcelain Company

Medium

Porcelain

Description

This is a Worcester fluted saucer dish painted in the center with a rose, yellow, purple, and iron-red bird perched on a leafy branch. The rim is gilt-edged and scalloped with a border of green trellis diaper panels reserved with gilt-feathered demilunes and edged with gilt C-scrolls pendant at the sides with garlands of rose mignonettes above smaller mignonette clusters.

Dimensions

7 in. (17.8 cm)