

Basic Detail Report

Worcester Sugar Bowl and Cover

Date

ca. 1775

Primary Maker

Worcester Porcelain Company

Medium

Porcelain

Description

This is a Worcester sugar bowl (A) and cover (B). Each piece is painted in rose monochrome with two larger stylized floral sprigs alternating with two smaller sprigs within gilt rococo cartouches between pairs of smaller sprigs beneath the gilt-edged rim. The cover has a rose floral sprig knob. The bowl has a hair crack and the knob has chips.

Dimensions

4 7/8 in. (12.4 cm)