Description

The David L. Hack Civil War Photography Collection. A line of men stand in uniform in front of a two story brick building. Several chimneys jut out of the roof. Large windows and decorative ionic columns dominate the façade. A circular window rests at the top of the building in the center. A sign above the doorway says "Provost Marshal's Office" and a banner along the top of the building says "Marine Fire Insurance Offices." Below the photograph the text reads "Alexandria Va." This is from Gardner's Photographic Sketchbook of the War_ (Hack Collection No. 2].
