

Basic Detail Report

Worcester 'Fruit Sprays' Pattern Vine Leaf-Shaped Pickle Dish

Date

ca. 1775-80

Primary Maker

Worcester Porcelain Company

Medium

Porcelain

Description

This is a Worcester "Fruit Sprays" pattern vine leaf-shaped pickle dish press-molded on the exterior with veining issuing from the blue short stem-form handle. It is painted on the interior with a central cluster of fruit and trailing stems of flowers encircled by six alternating floral and foliate sprigs within the blue-feathered serrated rim. There is a crescent mark in underglaze blue. There are small chips and some abrasion on the rim edge.

Dimensions

4 1/2 in (11.4 cm)