Description

This is a Worcester large cos lettuce sauceboat press-molded as overlapping rose-veined, brown-edged leaves issuing from a looped-stem handle with a brown end. The large upper leaf on each side also has a rose midrib and brown-feathered ruffled edges. The sauceboat is painted in rose, blue, yellow, green, and brown with small scattered insects and sprigs of blossoms and leaves. The interior has a single blue and green floral sprig. The footrim has restored chips.
