

Goblet with Engraved scenes

Date

mid to late 19th century

Primary Maker

Unknown

Medium

Blown and engraved glass

Description

This tall colorless goblet is composed of a bowl with four detailed scenes engraved in cartouches, each labeled with its location in Hamburg, Germany. The stem features elaborate cutting and the foot has a row of small engraved dots, a band of solid etched glass, and a row of engraved swags that frame its circumference. Its large size indicates it was a commemorative rather than functional goblet.

Dimensions

12 3/8 × 5 3/8 × 4 5/8 in. (31.4 × 13.7 × 11.7 cm)