

Römer-style wine glass

Date

late 19th-early 20th c.

Medium

Blown, applied, tooled, enameled, and gilded glass

Description

Transparent, light green glass. Cup-shaped bowl decorated with lines of gilding and dots, and central area of highly colorful enameled floral scrolls (red, pink, blue, purple, etc. with white details). Stem is made of hollow form constricted into four bubbles that become smaller until joins mold-blown foot with horizontal ribbing. Applied prunts with raspberry stamp on uppermost bubble of stem. Rows of enameled white dots decorate two of the stem bubbles, and another bubble has alternating pink or blue dotted clusters. Gilded bands on bowl, stem, and top of the foot.