

Basic Detail Report

Pink Glass Compote

Date

ca. 1890

Primary Maker

Salviati Dott. Antonio

Medium

Blown and applied glass

Description

Glass bowl is small and bulb-like, glaring outwards to rippling sides and a pointed back with curling element. Bowl and foot in streaky pink glass (bubbly and traces of black ash) with traces of hot-applied gold leaf; faint optic mold-blown ribbed pattern, slightly twisted. Hollow stem of colorless glass with traces of hot-applied gold leaf, optic ribbing, and three raspberry prunts. Six more raspberry prunts around lower body. Prunts are roughly made, with cut edges visible.

Dimensions

9 in. (22.9 cm)